

U3A KNOX Inc. Angling Group Policy, Procedures and Practices

General Policy

Each member is to be advised in writing that U3A Knox Inc. does NOT indemnify ordinary members or provide public liability, personal accident or any other insurance cover whatsoever including but not limited to; burglary, fire, theft, malicious damage, storm, hail, vehicle collision damage, recovery of any vessel, trailer or contents for any reason including; following an accident, repairs, breakdown or accident to the towing vessel, death of, illness of or accident involving the member/skipper of the towing vessel, or loss of accommodation, payments or deposits, or increased costs of accommodation, or the loss of or damage to personal or other property.

1. Members in the group are permitted to bring an unregistered/un-enrolled spouse, partner, family member, friend or other person to any excursion as their guest.
2. For insurance purposes and prior to any excursion, the Co-ordinator must be given the names of any guest/s attending that excursion.
3. Any member who has a guest/s agrees to ensure their guest/s is/are aware of and agree to accept and abide by the policies of the Knox U3A Angling Group at all times
4. Members are responsible for ensuring their own medical fitness.
(Medical advice to be sought if unsure)
5. Members must, prior to any excursion, be satisfied that they can complete the trip unassisted, if there is any doubt, they should not attend as this makes it unfair on the other members.
6. Members must have with them at all times their U3A membership tag completed with up to date emergency contact details.
7. A list of all relevant medical conditions and medications are to be placed in a sealed envelope and given to the trip coordinator prior to any excursions.
8. All members are to understand that there will be NO Qualified Medical or First Aid treatment provided by U3A while on an excursion.
9. Members and their guests are responsible for obeying all State regulations and or directives given by DEPI employee's or Fishing Inspectors. And must at all times conduct themselves in a manner that does not bring the reputation of Knox U3A Angling Group into disrepute.
10. No alcohol is to be carried or consumed while aboard any vessel, on a pier, or river bank utilised during a fishing excursion.
11. All members are to assist in preparation of meals, washing up and general set up or clean up at the end of an excursion.
12. The Coordinator shall if necessary direct a member to relinquish driving a motor vehicle or any vessel if he/she deems it in that members best interest to do so. All members must be prepared to accept and abide by that decision prior to undertaking any excursion.
13. Members are to abide by any applicable rules as set down by U3A Knox that do not conflict in any way with the Procedures and Policies of the Angling Group.
14. Members must advise the Coordinator if they wish to leave before the finish of an excursion, or to deviate from the arrangements already made.
